- 2) Etude d'une carte de remerciement (présentation, salutations, etc)
- 3) Rédaction d'une carte de remerciement

1) What did you like ?

Transparent "likes" = different expressions (voir page 3)

Transparent "activities / things during the trip in Germany" – pour introduire le voc (voir page 4):

Talk with my penpal	the country
Visit the museums	the people
Visit the biscuit factory	the food
Attend the classes	the penpals
Go to german parties	the teachers
Be with the family
Watch the play

Poser les questions pour chaque expression.

Pairwork : les élèves se posent les questions puis mise en commun.

2) Etude d'une carte

CE : repérage, identification, conclusion.

Flèches avec indications.

What s it ? It's the sender address, the date, the valediction (or salutation), the signature.

The address is on the right. The zip code / postal code is at the end, after the city. The number of the street is also at the end. "street" is after the name of the street.

Repérer: comment remercie-t-on en anglais?

-> Thank you for + nom

-> Thank you for + verb-ING

Salutations:

Classe ces salutations si elles sont plus formelles ou informelles :

Yours truly, Best wishes, warm regards, love, lots of love

Que signifie les "xxx" à la fin ?

Homework : Amener une enveloppe et une feuille (ou une feuille cartonnée pour faire une carte).

Dear Edward,

I wanted to say thank you for welcoming me in your family during the last holidays. I enjoyed my trip very much ! I particularly liked visiting the Natural History Museum. It was very interesting. I also loved riding your motorbike! ;-) We had a lot of fun !

I liked you family very much. Your brother is really funny! ☺ Please tell him I'm going to miss him.

And I loved the food! Say thank you your mother for the wonderful meals !

I would like to come again next summer. Do you think it's possible ?

Thank you again for your kindness.

*See you,
Love, xxx*

Jenna
