John Merrick two references - 1. Merrick, born in 1862, was called "the Elephant Man", because he suffered from a rare disease that made him look, well, kind of like an elephant 2. In the late eighties, Michael Jackson was falsely rumored to have paid a millions dollar for Merrick's bones. Note: In the live version of the song, the words are changed to John Davidson's remains. Actor and singer Davidson was very popular in the 1970s, but unlike Merrick, he is still alive and touring.

Kraft Dinners Kraft macaroni and cheese dinner in a box is one of the cheapest meals available at convenience stores near college campuses and is therefore the standard meal of poor American (and apparently Canadian) college students.

Garfunkel That's a joke. Picasso made art. Garfunkel's first name is Art. He was the other half of the 60s folk group Simon and Garfunkel.
